The twins were born on May 10, 2022 to a courageous young woman who was served by our center this year. When she came to Women's Life Care Center for an ultrasound early in her pregnancy, the twins' mom was shocked to see her sons on the screen. When we asked if we could take her twins' picture for this Christmas card, she was thrilled to share them with you, our donors.

"I actually had an abortion scheduled when I walked into your ultrasound room. My friend told me that I should have the ultrasound. When I saw my twins. . . I couldn't do it after that. I am so glad now. I will have them with me this Christmas."

In spite of a series of tough challenges, this mother chose to go forward with her pregnancy. We wish that was always the case. No matter what, your generosity allows us to be 'ready in a heartbeat' to offer a broad set of excellent and evolving programs. Each client is able to choose the program or programs that are most critical to her situation.

We see repeatedly that as we show up with diligence for our moms, we can often keep a heartbeat (or in this case heartbeats) going. We absolutely must continue to be in a position to offer just the right kind of support, at the right time. So much depends on it. We must listen carefully to our clients' needs and respond -- every single time -- with action and haste.

Please give generously this Christmas season so that we can respond with strength to the immense challenges we are sure to face in 2023. We strive to meet every woman who comes to our door with the very best assistance, to quickly address her unique needs, and to help her little one(s) to cross the finish line.

We pray you have a joyful Christmas and New Year season, renewed in God's hope and assured of His grace.
